

From: Charles Hood
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 8:03am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

According to the Tunney Act, I have the opportunity to comment on the proposed Microsoft settlement. In brief, I think its a bad idea. Specifically, I think the Proposed Final Judgement contains definitions that are too narrow and perhaps misleading. For example, "API" is so tightly defined that it might exclude APIs used by the Microsoft Installer for installing software on Windows. Please reconsider. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Charles Hood
Roswell, GA